World Outgames 2009

I am pleased to give my strongest possible support for the organisation of World Outgames 2009 in Copenhagen.

I believe that this event is an important and great opportunity to promote diversity, freedom and equal opportunity on a national, as well as international, level.

World Outgames will be an inclusive event open to everyone. World Outgames' multi-dimensional program is designed to encourage tolerance, physical well-being and creativity in society. The unique combination of sports, culture and human right makes World Outgames attractive to tourists, business people and other players in the diverse global economy.

It is with great appreciation for the effort, and without reservation, that I support World Outgames. I hope that you will also support the project with all of the financial and moral resources at your disposal.

Yours sincerely,

Brian Mikkelsen
